

Three Social Happenings in Towns of State

PROVO.

The many friends of Miss Arvilla Clark will be pleased to learn of her engagement to William Andelin. Miss Clark is of Provo, and Mr. Andelin spent a number of years in this city while attending the Brigham Young university. Both are talented and accomplished young people and have a host of friends throughout Utah, who will be pleased to learn of their engagement.

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Hodson entertained at a family dinner New Year's day at their cozy new home. Covers were laid for twelve.

Miss Maggie Stewart entertained at dinner Tuesday in honor of H. L. Jackson of Denver.

Harry Felt of Manti was a Provo visitor this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Peter Groneman entertained at a party at their home Monday evening. A large number of friends enjoyed the evening. Prizes were awarded Mrs. Nettie Lovelless and Samuel Bailey.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Haws entertained at a family gathering at their home Monday evening. A pleasant social evening was passed while they watched the old year out and the new year in. A dainty lunch was served.

Miss Avis Thompson was the pleasing hostess at a party at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. Thompson, Wednesday evening. Fun and merriment reigned supreme during the three hours of merriment. Lunch was served.

H. C. and N. C. Hicks of Salt Lake were the guests of Miss Hannah Dunn at dinner Tuesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Taylor delightedly entertained a large number of their relatives and friends at a party at their home on Provo Bench, Monday. Music, cards, sweet singing and games were enjoyed at a sumptuous dinner was served. About fifty friends gathered to enjoy the hospitality of the genial host and hostess.

Mrs. C. E. Loose entertained a few lady friends at her home New Year's eve at a watch party. Refreshments were served.

Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Halliday celebrated their twentieth wedding anniversary at their home Saturday evening. Music, games and the extending of good wishes were indulged in. Supper was served.

Miss Effie Graham has returned to her home after a visit with relatives and friends in this city.

Mr. and Mrs. James Snow delightedly entertained a number of their friends at their home New Year's night. Cards, music and games all tended to make a most enjoyable evening. Lunch was served.

Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Bailey entertained at a family gathering at their home on New Year's day. A dainty lunch was served.

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Hodson entertained Percy Burleson of Nevada Monday.

Mrs. William B. Ward was the charming hostess at a Kensington at her home Friday afternoon. In honor of her sister, Mrs. Zina Mendenhall, of Provo. About thirty guests enjoyed a pleasant afternoon of music, cards and the partaking of delicious refreshments.

The Ladies' Home Comfort club entertained a number of children at the home of Mrs. Joseph Kirkwood on New Year's day. Games of various kinds were enjoyed by the little ones. Fruit, candy and nuts were distributed.

Mrs. Luez Knight Allen entertained at a theatre party Thursday evening.

Mrs. W. B. Seales delightedly entertained the Five Hundred Card club at her home Thursday evening. The game was greatly enjoyed by the participants. Prizes were awarded as follows: Mrs. W. D. Roberts and Grant Bagley won the first prize, and Mrs. E. J. Pike and Mrs. Schwab the consolation prizes. An elaborate lunch was served.

Mrs. E. C. Hendrickson entertained a large number of friends at her home Saturday evening in honor of the birthday anniversary of her husband. Music, games and social chat were enjoyed by all. Dinner was served.

Mrs. Thomas John was the charming hostess at a dinner party Monday at her home, given in honor of William Bullock and family of Canada. A sumptuous dinner and a social time were enjoyed by all.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Slater entertained a number of their friends at their home New Year's eve. The hours passed merrily with cards, games and the partaking of delicious refreshments.

Mrs. E. T. Jones visited relatives and friends in Salt Lake this week.

Misses Anna Johnson and Martha Sanders, of Salt Lake City, visited Miss Lydia Knudsen and other Provo friends this week.

Miss Hannah Dunn was the charming hostess at a luncheon at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Dunn, Wednesday, in the evening the company enjoyed a skating party at the rink.

The Nineteenth Century club met Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. W. Barnes. The general topic was "Utah," under which heading the following excellent papers were given: "Early History," Mrs. Barnes; "Maud Adams," James Harwood and Harry Culmer; Mrs. Emily Haverkamp; "C. E. Dallin," Mrs. Ephraim Sutton.

Henry and Finn Berg, formerly of this city, but now residing at Pocatello, Idaho, visited relatives and friends in this city this week.

Misses Nettie Knudsen, Bertha Barney and Mammie Beasley visited friends in Ogden this week.

Mrs. Rachel Marshall of Minersville, has returned home after an extended and pleasant visit with her sister, Mrs. Leah Payne.

Nick Morgan and Heber Hicks of Salt Lake spent New Year's day with friends in this city.

Mr. and Mrs. Claire Reid have returned from Salt Lake after a pleasant visit.

Mrs. Lorena Dusenberry is visiting friends in Salt Lake this week.

Claud, Carl and Clay Ashworth delightedly entertained a number of their young friends at a watch party at the home of their mother Monday evening. About twenty-five guests were present. A dainty lunch was served.

Mrs. C. A. Glazier entertained a number of her friends at a Kensington at her home Wednesday. Dainty refreshments and a social time was enjoyed by all.

Mrs. A. L. Woodhouse, assisted by her sister, Miss Nettie Pike, entertained at a dinner Sunday at her home. The rooms and table were prettily decorated with holly and cut flowers. Covers were laid for ten.

The guests of the Hotel Roberts delightedly entertained at a private ball at the hotel New Year's evening. About twenty couples enjoyed a delightful evening. Lunch was served.

Mrs. C. A. Glazier entertained a number of her friends at a Kensington at her home Wednesday. Dainty refreshments and a social time was enjoyed by all.

Mrs. A. L. Woodhouse, assisted by her sister, Miss Nettie Pike, entertained at a dinner Sunday at her home. The rooms and table were prettily decorated with holly and cut flowers. Covers were laid for ten.

The guests of the Hotel Roberts delightedly entertained at a private ball at the hotel New Year's evening. About twenty couples enjoyed a delightful evening. Lunch was served.

Mrs. C. A. Glazier entertained a number of her friends at a Kensington at her home Wednesday. Dainty refreshments and a social time was enjoyed by all.

Mrs. A. L. Woodhouse, assisted by her sister, Miss Nettie Pike, entertained at a dinner Sunday at her home. The rooms and table were prettily decorated with holly and cut flowers. Covers were laid for ten.

The guests of the Hotel Roberts delightedly entertained at a private ball at the hotel New Year's evening. About twenty couples enjoyed a delightful evening. Lunch was served.

Mrs. C. A. Glazier entertained a number of her friends at a Kensington at her home Wednesday. Dainty refreshments and a social time was enjoyed by all.

Mrs. A. L. Woodhouse, assisted by her sister, Miss Nettie Pike, entertained at a dinner Sunday at her home. The rooms and table were prettily decorated with holly and cut flowers. Covers were laid for ten.

The guests of the Hotel Roberts delightedly entertained at a private ball at the hotel New Year's evening. About twenty couples enjoyed a delightful evening. Lunch was served.

Mrs. C. A. Glazier entertained a number of her friends at a Kensington at her home Wednesday. Dainty refreshments and a social time was enjoyed by all.

Mrs. A. L. Woodhouse, assisted by her sister, Miss Nettie Pike, entertained at a dinner Sunday at her home. The rooms and table were prettily decorated with holly and cut flowers. Covers were laid for ten.

The guests of the Hotel Roberts delightedly entertained at a private ball at the hotel New Year's evening. About twenty couples enjoyed a delightful evening. Lunch was served.

Mrs. C. A. Glazier entertained a number of her friends at a Kensington at her home Wednesday. Dainty refreshments and a social time was enjoyed by all.

Mrs. A. L. Woodhouse, assisted by her sister, Miss Nettie Pike, entertained at a dinner Sunday at her home. The rooms and table were prettily decorated with holly and cut flowers. Covers were laid for ten.

The guests of the Hotel Roberts delightedly entertained at a private ball at the hotel New Year's evening. About twenty couples enjoyed a delightful evening. Lunch was served.

Mrs. C. A. Glazier entertained a number of her friends at a Kensington at her home Wednesday. Dainty refreshments and a social time was enjoyed by all.

Mrs. A. L. Woodhouse, assisted by her sister, Miss Nettie Pike, entertained at a dinner Sunday at her home. The rooms and table were prettily decorated with holly and cut flowers. Covers were laid for ten.

the various packages. An elaborate lunch was served.

Mr. and Mrs. F. Stiegmeier will leave the latter part of the week for Los Angeles, where they will pass the winter.

Misses Thelma Hardy, Nina Taylor and Mr. Ralph Jones were the guests of honor at a skating party given in their honor at the Hotel Roberts in Payson this week.

Mr. and Mrs. George Taylor and Miss Mary, the latter part of the week with friends in Salt Lake.

Misses Ivy Cluff, Mina Taylor and The Hardy visited friends in Payson this week.

Mrs. A. O. VanDyke of Salt Lake spent the holidays with her mother, Mrs. M. H. Hardy.

Merle Taylor was an American Fork visitor Monday and Tuesday.

Miss Lucile Dummer entertained a number of her friends Friday evening at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joshua Dunn. Games, music and recitations were enjoyed until a late hour. A dainty lunch was served.

Oro Hardy entertained at an informal reception at the home of his mother, Mrs. M. H. Hardy Tuesday evening. Lunch was served and refreshments were served.

Brad Egan returned to his home Sunday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Newell were the guests of Dr. and Mrs. Calder Saturday.

PARK CITY.

The regular meeting of the Woman's Athenaeum will be held Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the home of Mrs. E. B. Young and a special musical program, which is being arranged for, will be given.

Clara Mallia went down to the city Friday afternoon, where she will attend the Lowell school.

Frank Warren returned from Salt Lake Monday morning at a pleasant time, days' visit with relatives and friends.

Frances Shields is visiting in Salt Lake with her mother, Mrs. C. O. Newell.

Misses Eva and Fessie Lambert entertained a crowd of their young friends at a watch party Monday evening in the home of Mrs. H. B. Young. The evening was spent in telling fortunes and light refreshments were served.

Clara Mallia returned to his home in the city Wednesday afternoon after a pleasant three days' visit in the Park with relatives and friends.

Patrick Hurley left Thursday afternoon for Arkansas, where he goes to try to benefit his health.

Clara Mallia is visiting in camp from Goldfield for a few days.

The dance given Tuesday evening in the hall by the work of installing proved to be a very successful affair and the large crowd of dancers that were present enjoyed themselves beyond a doubt.

Louis Menhe left Wednesday afternoon for Salt Lake, where he expects to remain for a few days.

Miss Eva Hamlin returned to her home in Zion Wednesday afternoon after a week's visit with Miss Eva Lambert.

Ernest Bamberger was in camp on mining business this week.

The degree of Honor No. 2, A. O. U. W., installed officers Thursday night in their lodge rooms. The work of installing officers had been completed the members of the lodge repaired to the Senate restaurant, where a supper was served.

Mr. and Mrs. S. G. Crompton returned Friday morning from a visit in Salt Lake.

Miss Irma Evans gave a sleighriding party Friday afternoon, complimentary to Miss Gene Theriot.

The installation of officers of the Rebekeah lodge will take place next Tuesday.

James Doyle returned to Pocatello, Idaho, after a pleasant visit with his parents.

Miss Frieda Funk returned home Wednesday morning after a pleasant visit in Bingham and Salt Lake.

After the regular meeting Thursday night the Woodmen held a social session.

Mr. R. E. Wight returned Thursday morning from New York.

Misses Edna and Stella Staley returned to their home Thursday morning after a pleasant visit in Ogden.

TINTIC.

Mrs. E. G. Hanson returned Monday from a short visit to the capital.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Embleton have removed to Salt Lake City, where they will reside.

Mrs. George Potts is entertaining Mrs. Fred Bramley of Salt Lake City.

Mrs. Phil Clarke is visiting relatives in the capital.

The Carnation club was entertained by Mrs. Oscar Forslund at a watch-night party last Monday.

Mrs. Joseph Phillips returned Thursday from Spanish Fork, where she had been visiting relatives.

Mrs. Jerry Conley and daughter are visiting relatives in Baker City, Ore.

Miss Florence Sutherland returned last Sunday from a visit to Lehi.

Mrs. M. R. E. Sullivan visited Payson last Sunday.

Mrs. Mike Murnane returned to her home in Payson last Sunday.

Mr. N. A. Robertson is out from the capital.

Mrs. Bosch and daughter of Salt Lake are guests of Mr. and Mrs. P. J. Coimera.

Mrs. Will Roberts returned from a visit to the capital last Sunday.

Mrs. Ben Thurman is entertaining Mrs. Beverly Harper of Provo.

Mrs. Byron Thurman returned last Wednesday from a visit to relatives in the valley.

Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Don Carlos returned Monday from a visit to Idaho.

Mrs. P. J. Donnelly is entertaining Mrs. F. J. Hirt and children of Ogden.

Mrs. T. J. Sullivan visited Salt Lake City and Ogden during the week.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Evans entertained the former's mother, Mrs. Evans, of Salt Lake, last week. She returned last Tuesday, accompanied by her daughter-in-law.

Mrs. D. J. Sullivan and Miss Irene Sullivan are visiting in the capital.

Colin McMurchie visited his family in Payson last Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. John Kehoe and family returned from Evanston, Wyo., the latter end of last week.

Frank L. Lumley is entertaining C. A. Castle, a former chum of his from Binghamton, N. Y.

The Mothers' club gave the teachers of the Eureka public schools a reception last Friday evening, which was a great social success.

Mrs. Cecilia Bacon was out from Salt Lake City during the week.

James Crooks was a visitor to the capital last Monday and Tuesday.

James Murphy is visiting in Salt Lake City.

Mr. and Mrs. James D. Stack went to Ogden last Monday to attend the funeral of the former's brother, Charles Stack, who died last Monday.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Treloar at the Victor mine was the scene of a very pleasant reception, given in honor of Miss Clara Trelognon of Salt Lake City. The affair was attended by a large number of friends and relatives from Eureka, Robinson and Mammoth, and the evening was pleasantly spent with music and games of various kinds, and was brought to a close with a delicious lunch.

SECRET SOCIETIES.

The Women of Woodcraft installed the new officers of the order last evening, and there was a large attendance of the members. Mrs. Ella Porter, state organizer, was present and treated the ladies to an interesting talk.

On Thursday the officers of the Columbia Rebekah lodge No. 2, I. O. O. F., were installed. The following ladies will have charge of the lodge's affairs during the ensuing term: Past noble grand, Flora Thomson; noble grand, Rosa Taylor; vice grand, Della McKelvie; recording secretary, Alma Pope; financial secretary, Sarah V. Bowen; treasurer, Elsie Stott; trustee, Victoria Thayer.

Monday evening the Eureka Eagles will install their new officers. The aerie is in a very prosperous condition, having over 100 membership.

MURRAY.

Mrs. Mollie Heal of Salt Lake was in town Sunday.

Miss Ollie Anderson of Salt Lake was visiting Miss Jennie Stratton during the week.

J. W. Cahoon left Monday for Los Angeles.

James Powell of Murray and Miss Eva Hahanson of Salt Lake were united in marriage during the week.

Eugene Holding of Spanish Fork was visiting friends here Wednesday.

Lois Healy has accepted a position with the Oregon Short Line.

Thomas Martin, who is attending school at Provo, was in town during the week.

Green of Salt Lake won the watch given by Messrs. White and Savage Saturday night.

Arthur Gordon is home from Goldfield.

Louis Harvey was visiting his parents at Pleasant Grove Tuesday.

Miss Irene Atwood is visiting friends in Old Mexico.

Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Huih were visiting their daughter, Mrs. Dan Pack, at Payson Thursday.

The Rebekeah held a watch meeting at the Fraternal hall New Year's eve.

Miss Louise Holm is the chief operator at the Independent.

Albert Cleland and Miss Esther Nelson were married Thursday.

Mrs. Elizabeth Moore entertained a few of her friends at cards Thursday evening. Artistic prizes and a dainty lunch were the enjoyable feature of the evening.

Roller skating has been discontinued at the opera house on account of the bad condition of the floor.

Harry A. Powell has resigned his position with the Oregon Short Line.

Ray Cahoon is with the Utah Light & Railway company.

Miss Lucille Holman of Sandy was visiting her sister, Mrs. Doctor Ferber, Monday.

The Murray Sunday school entertained about 100 of the little tots with a dance at the opera house Tuesday.

M. A. Warburton has moved his family into his new home on Fourteenth street.

Reynolds Cahoon left for Nevada Saturday.

Mrs. J. R. Miller left Wednesday for Price, Utah.

Miss Beulah Parkinson left Tuesday for Colorado.

Wilfred Smith of Salt Lake was in town Thursday visiting friends.

Nephil Adamson of South Cottonwood and Miss Maud Thorum were married Wednesday.

D. F. Cahoon is on the sick list this week.

Mrs. Thomas Powell entertained a few of her friends at cards Wednesday evening.

LOGAN.

Prof. and Mrs. William Petersen entertained a large party of their friends on Monday evening, the occasion being the sixth anniversary of their wedding. Music and cards furnished the evening's amusement, and delicious refreshments were served.

Mr. and Mrs. B. Larsen entertained at cards on New Year's eve. About thirty guests were present and they spent a pleasant evening with whist.

Mrs. W. W. Naylor and her son, spending a week or two with Salt Lake friends. Miss Lillian Cash returned from Bountiful the first of the week, after spending ten days there as the guest of her sister.

Professor Bowen returned Monday from a visit to relatives in Malad, Idaho.

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Hampton, of Bountiful, visited during the week with Logan relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. John L. Ballif are down from Rexburg, Idaho, on a visit to friends.

Mrs. John A. Crockett is visiting friends in Salt Lake City.

Lorin Farr, of Ogden, is visiting with Logan friends, having come up to attend the funeral of his relative, Mrs. Persus A. Farr.

S. W. Cassel, of Denver, is visiting here. L. L. Cushman, of Helena, Mont., is visiting with Logan friends.

Ed. Holden, of Teton, Idaho, is visiting with Logan friends.

Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Hayball, leave for Los Angeles, on Monday, and will likely spend a good part of the winter there.

W. H. Stocks, of Gray, Idaho, is visiting with Logan friends.

John Davidson and wife, of Teton, Idaho, are here on a visit to relatives.

Richard S. Ballantyne was the guest of the Second ward people on Friday evening, at a big reception held in the ward hall.

M. F. Cowley, of Alberta, Canada, spent part of the week with friends in this city.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Wadman entertained on Friday evening in honor of their silver wedding day. A large company of guests were present.

George Crockett, of Whitney, Idaho, spent part of the week with Logan relatives.

George Batt, of Pasadena, Cal., is the guest of his brother, Mr. Charles Batt.

Mr. Woodruff Olsen left here Saturday for Ely, Nev., where he will remain some time.

Hyrum Georgeson, of Rexford, Idaho, is visiting friends in Logan and vicinity.

S. G. Neilson, of Grand Rapids, Mich., is here for a week's stay with friends.

BINGHAM.

Mrs. George Christopherson of the Highland Boy, entertained the Sewing club Wednesday afternoon.

Mrs. G. W. Metcalf of Bingham Junction is the guest of Mrs. Alice Bush of the depot.

Miss Hazel Teacher and Miss Hulda Schweitzer were the guests of Miss Ina Clays during the week, returning to the city Thursday morning.

Dr. Oxford, who has been visiting his home in Omaha, is expected to return about the first of the week.

Miss Bowman of Salt Lake City is spending the holidays with her father, Mr. Bowman of the Miners' Mercantile Co., of Upper Bingham.

D. W. Cummins, principal of Dalton and Lark schools, is spending the vacation in the city.

The New Year dance at Lark was a very successful affair. The music was exceptionally good, the regular Lark orchestra being reinforced by Mr. G. Lattimer, a cornettist from the University of Utah, who is spending the holidays with his father and brother at Lark.

Miss Ora Allen, who has been attending Rowland hall, is spending the vacation with the Misses Creighton.

Miss Gerlie Green of the U. of U. is spending the holidays with her parents.

R. V. Thurston and wife of the Yampa Smelting company, spent New Year's in Salt Lake.

Miss Crawford of the Miners' Mercantile company of Upper Bingham entertained at high five in honor of Mrs. Bowman.

Mrs. A. W. Forman and Mrs. Brit Jones

the home of her daughter, Mrs. N. H. Feit.

NEPHI.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Booth of Provo are in Nephi this week visiting relatives and friends.

The New Year watch party given by Miss Ethel Wright to the members of the Craytrucks' club was thoroughly enjoyed by all.

Enoch Burton and family are up from southern Utah renewing old acquaintance this Wednesday.

George McCune went to Salt Lake on Thursday.

Miss Dot Wilson returned to Payson Tuesday after a pleasant visit with her friend, Miss Maude Belliston.

W. L. Brown of Salt Lake visited in Nephi Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Sparks of Provo spent this week here visiting relatives and friends.

Miss Emma Wood left for Ogden Tuesday.

W. P. Waxman left for Salt Lake Thursday.

Principal F. W. Merrill and County Superintendent T. W. Vickers went to Ogden Wednesday to attend the state teachers' convention.